We all know stress is not good for us. Stress items are great for relieving the tension or anger that leads to stress. That's why many are happy about such a kneading ball, also called a rage ball. Your logo on the Ruby rugby ball shaped stress reliever makes an impression when squeezed. Although people like to refer to these items as a stress ball, in this case it is not a ball, but has the shape of a rugby ball. This way your advertising gets a little more attention than conventional foam balls with a logo. This stress ball is sure to make a statement with your logo and is not just a traditional foam ball with it. The anti-stress item is made of PU foam. Have you made your choice? Order your anti-stress items directly from IGO Promo. Running out of printed stress items? No worries! Reorders are very easy via the online account. Discover for yourself how easy it is to have stress items printed with a logo.
